

The Washington Post

This Washington Post poll was conducted by telephone January 31 to February 10 among a random national sample of 1,775 adults, including users of both conventional and cellular phones. Half of respondents were randomly assigned to form one of the questionnaire and the other half were assigned to form two. Form one responses are based on 875 interviews and form two responses are based on 900 interviews. Results for form one and form two have a margin of sampling error of four percentage points.

Sampling, data collection and tabulation by Princeton Survey Research Associates International (PSRAI) of Princeton, NJ.
